IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Community Medicaid Home Care Look Back

– Updated as of April 2022

Highly anticipated and after many delays, the rules for Medicaid Home Care Look Back have been extended again. As of this writing, the Community Medicaid Look Back deadline has been moved to October 1, 2022.

Here is what we know now:

Beginning October 1, 2022, there will be a 30-month look-back period & penalty for all asset transfers during the 30 months prior to applying for Medicaid Home Care benefits.

Staying aware of the deadlines for the Medicaid Home Care Look Back is critical. If you want to reduce future penalties for asset transfers, it is urgent that you apply today!

These benefits can include adult day care, home health aides and other community type services.

If you have ever been unsure whether or not to apply for Medicaid for yourself or for someone you love, the time to act is now.

To be eligible to receive home care services under the Community Medicaid program you must be eligible by September 1, 2022, and you must apply under the current rules before October 1, 2022, to be subject to no look-back and no transfer penalties.
